

Szekszárd

WINE REGION

The region is located in the south of Hungary, next to the near Danube. The soil is a thick layer of loess, which together with the high incidence of sunshine, is the most favourable for the production of red wines.

2400

vineyard hectares

SOME IMPORTANT DATES

1267 - the first official mention of Szekszárd grapes

1444 - kadarka appeared in Szekszárd

1720 - more and more German settlers living in Szekszárd

1867 - well-known people such as Franz Liszt and Pope Pius IX.

loved the wines of Szekszárd

2015 - the wine region created its own new regional bottle

www.winesofa.eu

MAIN GRAPE VARIETIES

kadarka, kékfrankos, merlot, cabernet sauvignon, cabernet franc, syrah, pinot noir

